4. I advised [REDACTED] that he could proceed with the transfer of [REDACTED] from the [REDACTED] to Washington, D. C. to become Chief of the Supply Division. I also told him that I would try to make some decision on Warner's replacement before I leave on Tuesday, 18 August. In this connection, I talked with [REDACTED] about the possibility of replacing [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]. Jack was sympathetic to this idea and will give me some feedback on Monday, 17 August. He thought that someone junior to [REDACTED] might have to replace him but was personally in favor of this switch. If Don could be released he could be used in a number of places, such as Chief of the [REDACTED] Depot, Chief of the Planning Staff, or as an understudy for [REDACTED].
